System Assessment Results

Friday, 15 August 2008

Please click on the links to view Results for system wide assessments

07 ITBS Results

07 EOCT Results

8th Grade State Writing Assessment

Governor’s Honors Program (GHP) Finalists

08 Georgia High School Graduation Test Summary

09 itbs scores in state funded testing grades3 and 6

09 ITBS Results

09 Georgia High School Graduation Test Summary

09 ACT Five Yeat Trends

Additional System Results:

- 2007-3 Hall County high schools named International Baccalaureate Diploma Programs (Johnson, West, North). Only system in the southeast of Hall County’s size with three programs. www.ibo.org

- 2007-3 Hall County high schools (Johnson, West, North) named by US News and World Report as “The Best High Schools in America” –Only 14 non-magnet schools in the state of Georgia on the list

- 2007-Hall County record 7 students Selected for Governor’s Honors Program

- 27 schools make AYP in 2007 vs. 20 schools make AYP in 2006

- Record increases in nationally normed ITBS scores in 2007

- 2007 High School EOCT scores that outperform the state2007

- Record increases in 8th grade Writing Test Scores that outperform the state

- 2007-50 additional teachers certified locally in Gifted Endorsement

- 2007-40 additional teachers certified locally with Reading Endorsement

- 2007-Record 931 applicants at Job Fair (86% increase over past record)

- 2007-one year 111% increase in number of middle school students taking high school Carnegie Unit courses

- 2007-29% increase in the number of high school Advanced Placement Courses Offered

- 2007-45% increase in percentage of high school students taking Advanced Placement Courses

- 2007-60 students taking High School Honors’ Mentorship Courses

- 2008-Four additional CTAE programs granted “Industry Certification”

- 2007-High School Advanced Construction Classes build first Habitat for Humanity house, begin second

- High School begins offering Directed Studies courses for gifted and talented 9th and 10th grade students

- 2007-800 high school students, or a 15% increase in the number of students taking high school Honors courses

- Introduction of Mandarin Chinese language programs

- Rollback of 2007 millage rate from 17.2 to 15.75

- 2007-Accessing nearly $15,000,000 of previously untapped state growth funds to support building of 2 new schools

- 2007-$2,600,000 awarded to Hall County Schools in QZAB grants

- East Hall Middle 8th Grade Student Jonathan Casas places sixth in State Spelling Bee

- Flowery Branch High School Engineering Team wins National Competition

- Flowery Branch High School Trio places first in State

- East Hall High JROTC Student wins “Cadet of the State” award